

Java Software Developer

---

Department: Development
Reports to: Development Team Lead
Location: Wetherby
Hours: 37.5 hours per week

Summary

The Java Software Developer would be responsible for developing product enhancements and resolving issues. They will work with a dedicated team responsible for delivering a usable, scalable product that meets the specifications. The important skills for this position are a core understanding of Java, JavaScript, relational databases, integration patterns and common frameworks based on those technologies and approaches.

Primary responsibilities and accountabilities

- Analysis of business requirements
- Implementation of enhancements
- Bug fixing
- Testing the code throughout the development lifecycle
- Code reviews
- Building and releasing new versions of the application
- Contributing to the continuous improvement of the team process and codebase
- Working collaboratively with other developers, testers, product managers and IT support
- Participation in Scrum meetings (daily stand-ups, planning meetings and retrospectives)
- Issue and time tracking using standard tools
- Responsible for the continuous integration environment
- Proposing new technologies and constantly looking for ways to improve what we do

Skills and experience

- Core Java and JavaScript
- Knowledge of Java web application and frontend technologies such as Servlets, JSF, HTML5, Angular JS
- Java database technologies including JDBC, Hibernate
- Understanding of dependency injection frameworks such as Spring
- Experience of Tomcat, Linux, JBPM
- XML / JSON
- Some experience of modern frameworks like Kendo
- SQL and database technologies including advanced relational database features such as stored procedures, triggers and materialized views
- Continuous integration tools such as Jenkins
- Assist in troubleshooting software application issues
- Exposure to layered application architecture

- Have the willingness and ability to learn
- Someone who takes pride in their code
- Organised, Self Sufficient, Positive and Enthusiastic
- Exposure to automation and testing technologies such as Selenium Webdriver and Postman
- Usage of common testing frameworks such as Junit and Cucumber

Application

To apply for this position, please forward a CV and covering letter to hr@proactis.com.