

GSB SupplyCorp (formerly the Government-operated Stores Board), a private New Zealand owned company, was responsible for negotiating exclusive pricing and terms of supply for goods and services with New Zealand's leading suppliers. These contracts were then used by the many companies who had signed up to be members of GSB SupplyCorp.

The start of the evolution...

Supplynet purchased the Commerce One Procurement software, to develop and sell as SAAS for the New Zealand and Australian markets, and changed its name to Conexa Ltd.

2004

Perfect Commerce became part of the Proactis Group.

2017

2000

Supplynet was founded as the eCommerce branch of GSB SupplyCorp, becoming a distributor for the Asia Pacific region of the Commerce One Procurement application.

2013

Conexa was bought by the US-based company Perfect Commerce and became Perfect Commerce NZ Ltd.

Ongoing...

Proactis empowers you to take control of your organization's spend.

