1.1 Licensee is hereby granted a non-transferable, non-exclusive right to Use the Licensed Software, together with the Documentation limited to the licensed Capacity. Licensee may Use the Licensed Software only for Licensee's internal business purposes and, if supplied via an On-Premises system, only at the Licensed System Location(s).

1.2 Licensee may place an order for one or more additional Licensed Modules. In that event, additional License Fees shall be payable by Licensee for the additional Licensed Module(s) as agreed in writing between the parties.

1.3 The Use of the Licensed Product requires a License key, which shall be either supplied by Proactis to Licensee to apply the same (with an On-Premises system) or (with a Hosted System) provided and applied directly by Proactis. Such License key will be programmed to tailor the Licensee's Use of the Licensed Product in conformity with the restrictions and allowed functionality in the License.

1.4 Licensee will notify Proactis promptly of any material change to an On-Premises system, including, without limitation, any such change that may necessitate a back-up or change to any Licensed System Location.

1.5 Licensee will be solely responsible for data conversion, backing up, virus checking the Licensed Software and any data on an On-Premises system and the cost of any of the same.

1.6 Licensee will be responsible for the provisioning of the infrastructure and licensing of such infrastructure which is required for the Licensed Product to fully function where the Proactis software is implemented in an On-Premises system.

2 License Term

2.1 The License will be either a subscription License (a "Subscription License") or a perpetual License (a "Perpetual License") as indicated in the Customer Contract.

2.2 A Subscription License will have an initial minimum term (the "Initial Term") and automatically renew for the same term in successive periods, as set out in the Customer Contract unless either Proactis or Licensee provides written notice of non-renewal at least one hundred and eighty (180) days prior to the expiration of the then current Term. A Perpetual License will not have a predetermined end date but may be terminated in accordance with its terms.

3.2 Proactis may audit Licensee's Use of the Licensed Product during normal business hours on reasonable notice and at Proactis' expense. Licensee will give Proactis such access as it may reasonably require to perform such audits. To the extent that the result of any such audit indicates that Licensee underpaid any Fees to Proactis Licensee shall immediately pay to Proactis the amount of any such underpayment together with interest due.

4 License Fee, Hosting Fee and Payment

4.1 Licensee shall pay to Proactis the License Fees and/or Hosting Fees and/or Data Fees and any other Fees set out in the Customer Contract.
